

Centre for Research & Development

Research Supervisor (Guide) Profiles

Discipline of Supervision: Psychology

Dr. Vineetha V

Assistant Professor
Department of Psychology
School of Humanities and Social Sciences

Areas of Specialisation:

Psychological Assessment and Research methods, Trauma Psychology, Child and Adolescent Psychology, Developmental Psychology, Positive psychology and Resilience.

Dr. Vineetha V is an Assistant Professor of Psychology with a Ph.D. in Psychology and research expertise in childhood trauma, psychological interventions, resilience, Parenting, mental health, and vulnerable populations. Her doctoral research focused on developing and evaluating integrated interventions for managing cognitive and behavioral problems among sexually abused girl children. Her broader research interests include trauma-informed care, resilience building, child and adolescent mental health, parenting styles, LGBTQ+ wellbeing, bullying prevention and domestic violence. Her research also includes the development of a short version of the Altruistic Personality Questionnaire during to her internship at the Defence Institute of Psychological Research (DIPR) under (DRDO). Dr. Vineetha is actively committed to advancing evidence based psychological practice through research, teaching and community engagement.

Selected Publications:

1. Vineetha, V., & Velayudhan, A. (2025). Development of Altruistic Personality Questionnaire: A Short Version. International Journal of Indian Psychology, 13(4). DOI: 10.25215/1304.038
2. Vineetha, V. (2025). Assessment of Resilience and Self Attitude Among Transgender Community in Tamil Nadu. International Journal of Indian Psychology, 13(4). DOI:10.25215/1304.008