

Business Standard - 24 April, 2026

WHIMSICAL WONDERS UNVEILED: LIT-CON CARNIVALESQUE AT KRISTU JAYANTI UNIVERSITY

The Department of English, School of Humanities and Social Sciences at Kristu Jayanti (Deemed to be University), Bengaluru, transformed the mundane into the magical with their much-anticipated literary extravaganza, Lit-Con Carnavalesque. This carnival-themed event delved deep into the diverse realms of literature, infusing whimsy and wonder into every corner. The Literary carnival was inaugurated by Fr Deepu Joy, Director, Student Welfare Office, Kristu Jayanti (Deemed to be University). He highlighted the impact of the event in moulding future literary enthusiasts.

Lit-Con-Carnavalesque provided attendees with a platform to explore the intersections of literature, creativity, and imagination. The display included various literary themes and games inspired by literature. A major highlight of the event was the grand Literary Procession organised within the campus, witnessed by thousands of enthusiastic students and faculty members. The procession brought literature to life as participants marched through the campus in a colorful parade of characters from timeless classics to modern.

