

KRISTU JAYANTI

(DEEMED TO BE UNIVERSITY)

Under Section 3 of UGC Act 1956
A CMI INSTITUTION | BENGALURU | INDIA

Deccan Herald 11 August, 2026

Air Commodore Kamal Chadha, Deputy Director General, NCC Directorate Karnataka and Goa; Vice Chancellor Fr Dr Augustine George and others take part in the investiture ceremony of Kristu Jayanti University recently.

Investiture ceremony at Kristu Jayanti University

BENGALURU, DHNS: Character, competence and compassion are the three qualities that define an effective leader, Air Commodore Kamal Chadha, Deputy Director General, NCC Directorate Karnataka and Goa, said.

He was speaking at the investiture ceremony of student leaders at Kristu Jayanti University in the city recently. Air Commodore Chadha said leadership is demonstrated through character, the way one treats others and the willingness to help those in need.

He added that leaders should give credit to their teams for success while taking responsibility for failures.

The university inducted its newly elected student leaders along with student secretaries of more than 60 clubs, associations and academies for the academic year.

Vice Chancellor Fr Dr Augustine George and others were present.