Kristu Jayanti University Hosts Inaugural Celebration

BENGALURU

Kristu Jayanti (Deemed to be University), Bengaluru, hosted its Grand Inaugural Celebration on Monday at its main campus, marking a historic milestone following its recognition as a Deemed to be University by the Ministry of Education, Government of India.

Padma Bhushan awardee N Ram, former Editor-in-Chief of The Hindu and Director of The Hindu Publishing Group, was the Chief Guest. He lauded the university's efforts in delivering quality education to all sections of society and highlighted the challenges faced by underprivileged communities. He emphasized the responsibility of higher education institutions to ensure accessibility, inclusivity, and excellence, while also addressing the ethical and structural biases embedded in generative AI in classrooms. During the ceremony, the university logo was officially unveiled by N Ram. The event also featured the release of Luminescence: The Silver Journey of Kristu Jayanti University, authored by Vice Chancellor Fr Dr Augustine George CMI and co-authored by Fr Joshy Mathew. The first copy was presented to Fr Dr Thomas Chathamparampil CMI, and former principals and CMI missionaries were honoured for their contributions.
