KRISTU JAYANTI UNIVERSITY IN COLLABORATION WITH ECHO ORGANISED PARIVARTHAN

ECHO Center for Juvenile Justice in collaboration with Department of Social Work, Kristu Jayanti (Deemed to be) University, organised Musical Drama “PARIVARTHAN – THE REFORMATION”

ECHO Center for Juvenile Justice, a non-governmental organization dedicated to supporting children in conflict with law for the past 26 years, is proud to present a unique stage performance titled “PARIVARTHAN – THE REFORMATION.” This musical drama is based on real-life stories of children who have been part of the ECHO and highlights their journeys of struggle, transformation and hope.

“Parivarthan” is designed to be an eye-opening and impactful experience for students, parents, community members, police personnel, teaching faculty, government officials, and members of the judiciary, including the judicial academy. The play sensitively portrays the sorrowful experiences endured by these children, with the objective of fostering awareness, empathy, and social consciousness.

The programme was graced by Fr. Dr. Augustine George CMI, Vice Chancellor of Kristu Jayanti University; Fr. Dr. George Kannanthanam, Founder, Project Vision and Project Shelter & Director of Summanahalli Society; Shri Mohan Menon; Adv. Fr. Dr. Antony Sebastian, Director of ECHO Center for Juvenile Justice and former Chairperson of KSCPCR, along with esteemed members of the judiciary, government officials, and other distinguished guests.
