KRISTU JAYANTI UNIVERSITY LAUNCHES PHD PROGRAMMES

Kristu Jayanti University inaugurated its first PhD cohort across 18 disciplines spanning humanities, commerce, and sciences, marking a significant milestone in establishing itself as a premier research institution. The three-day orientation programme formally inducted the scholars and provided foundational training in research methodologies and academic standards.

Vice Chancellor Fr Dr Augustine George in his inaugural address emphasised the university's commitment to research excellence and academic rigor. The occasion was graced by the presence of the Pro Vice Chancellor Fr Dr Lijo P Thomas, Chief Financial Officer Fr Dr Jais V Thomas, Registrar Dr Aloysius Edward, Dean of Academics Dr. Jude Calistus, Director of Research and Development Fr Dr Marialal Joseph, and Dean of Research & Development Dr Dileep Francis.

The orientation covered research programme overview, research ethics and integrity, the history and principles of formalized research, and practical workshops on research proposal development and academic article writing.
