SERVING STORIES: A LITERARY FOOD EXPERIENCE AT KRISTU JAYANTI UNIVERSITY

The Department of English, School of Humanities and Social Sciences, Kristu Jayanti University, organised a Literary Food Exhibition on January 13, 2026. The event was inaugurated by Fr Dr Marialal Joseph, Director, Research & Development and Director, Centre for Global Networking and Collaborations, Kristu Jayanti University. In his inaugural address, he highlighted the deep connection between food, culture, and storytelling, and appreciated the innovative efforts of the Department of English in blending literary studies with experiential learning.

The exhibition creatively blended literature and cuisine through various themes such as Heritage & Traditional Foods, Dessert Heaven, Global Street Food Festival, Food & Fairytales, Feasts of Fiction, Regal Banquets, and Divine Delights. The exhibition showcased how food functions as a powerful symbol in literary texts, cultural practices, and sacred traditions across the world.

Students showcased the cultural, literary, and symbolic significance of food through interactive stalls and displays. The event was well received and highlighted innovative learning through the integration of literature, culture, and culinary arts.
