

Business Standard - 21 January, 2026

Business Standard

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS, KRISTU JAYANTI (DEEMED TO BE UNIVERSITY) ORGANISED KAUTILYA 5.0

Kristu Jayanti (Deemed to be) University, Bangalore, School of Commerce, Accounting and Finance, Department of Economics successfully organized KAUTILYA 5.0, an intercollegiate Economic fest, with the objective of fostering analytical thinking, academic engagement, and interdisciplinary learning among students. The event served as a dynamic platform for students from diverse institutions to showcase their intellectual abilities and apply economic concepts to real-world issues.

The inauguration was graced by Mr Rajeev Velur, the Head of Human Resources, Printers (Mysore) Press, Bangalore and Fr Dr Marialal Joseph, Director, Centre for Research and Development and Dr Vijayakumar R, Dean, School of Commerce, Accounting & Finance, Kristu Jayanti (Deemed to be) University.

The insightful addresses set an enthusiastic and intellectually stimulating tone for the fest. KAUTILYA 5.0 witnessed participation of more than 150 students representing more than 15

Kristu Jayanti (Deemed to be) University, Bangalore, School of Commerce, Accounting and Finance, Department of Economics successfully organized KAUTILYA 5.0, an intercollegiate Economic fest, with the objective of fostering analytical thinking, academic engagement, and interdisciplinary learning among students. The event served as a dynamic platform for students from diverse institutions to showcase their intellectual abilities and apply economic concepts to real-world issues.

The inauguration was graced by Mr Rajeev Velur, the Head of Human Resources, Printers (Mysore) Press, Bangalore and Fr Dr Marialal

